MIM Digital- Workforce Upskilling in the Age of Social Distancing

The need for social distancing has forced all of us to rethink traditional learning in the classroom. During this MCO period The Malaysian Institute of Management has been working on a solution to help bring your organisation's learning journey online.

MIM Digital provides you with bite sized online programmes that give your learners the flexibility to gain knowledge wherever they are. The system's smart analytics gives you an overview of your talent's learning journey through an easy to understand reporting system. The time to go digital is now and with MIM you can upskill your talents anywhere and at anytime.

MIM Digital is here to help you develop a culture of learning in your company by engaging your talents through:
